

1. This young man was unnamed, God alone knows today just who he is- but he was used of God!
2. There is room for a lot of courage and daring in the service of the Lord- if you have it!
3. This boy risked his life to save the physical life of his uncle, are there young people or adults that would risk thier lives to save the eternal soul of some ne today?

1. V. 12 might seem like a foolish oath- If they succeeded they were murderers-if not -suicide
2. Like those that play dare-devil today- wrath worked up by a mob produces strange resolutions
3. The fact that Paul was seemingly sheltered by Rome made the plot to assassinate-patriotic.

1. The Sanhedrean had lost ~~its~~ power to call for death penalty- thier ~~only~~ way- murder by proxy
2. Not one priest, Pharisees included- objected to the criminal plot- silence gives consent
3. Thier request was to trigger the plot- The end does not justify the means-

1. It is surprising how much a young man can hear, if he will keep his ears open and mouth shut!
2. No identification- reason for being in Jerusalem- student? or Pilgrim?
3. But he heard- now the great decision- should he be quiet and watch, or speak at great risk?
The risk - From conspirators- death, from Romans- slavery or imprisonment

1. The boy gained access to prison- Paul was respected- though in prison- not tight security
2. There are many souls today in the prison house of sin that we could save if we Go and Tell
3. Paul had been assured of God's protection- but he did not shun the natural ways of protection

1. v.19 shows the tenderness of the Chief Captian- taking the young lad aside- touching scene
2. The plot was told- the chief captain believed it- The sincerity of a young lad is powerful
3. The risk to the boy- from the conspirators- death, now he needed protection argument

1. The wisdom and tenderness of the Roman officer is shown here- silence was protection!
2. Jesus after he healed men- often told them not to tell- for thier protection
3. But when you are saved- you are commanded to Go and Tell

1. THAT night Paul was sent on the Road to Ceasarea with a great escort-v.23
2. All this power unleashed by the simple testimony of a young boy-
3. More power than this can be unleashed by your testimony- if you will go and tell

1. The "father of lies" still plots and seeks to destroy the souls of men- Just as your friend
2. You will never know which sinful pleasure he will use to trap you to your death- or your
3. One of the reasons that I believe in Eternal Security- this entrapment of satan.

1. SMALL OR OLD boy or girl Anyone can Go and Tell - but will you?
2. Mankind has the means of Salvation- Rom 10: 9,10,13
3. When you go and tell, the powers of all eternity are arrayed to save the soul.

1. Unlssss you come to Jesus Christ, the devil has you trapped- just wait and die
2. If you do know the way of Salvation - will you Go and Tell?
- 3.
